Astrology

Feature Column by Eleanor Johnson
Hopewell Junction, NY

The theme of this issue is 'Blossoming Seeds'. There is a square dominating the heavens this year and next year. It is the unpredictable energy of Uranus, the planet of change and upheaval and the transforming energy which is Pluto. Pluto represents breakdown and rebuilding. Pluto creates breakdown in existing institutions it also creates changes within ourselves. We may feel reluctant and insecure about changing patterns within ourselves as change can represent the unknown. The challenge for us is to embrace the need to release old patterns of behavior that are detrimental to our evolution.

We are being aided by a grand trine in water signs which offers emotional stability and understanding making the challenges easier to work with and overcome. This encourages stability in the midst of the changes occurring globally and personally.

In July, the planet Jupiter will go into the sign of Cancer for a year. Jupiter is expansive and in this sign it is well placed. It brings to our consciousness the need for nurturing. In this sign it also encourages emotional stability. Jupiter forms a conjunction in July and August with the planet Mars, the planet of action. Together they can help us be optimistic about the future and the possibilities of positive change.

Jupiter in July and August makes a trine to Saturn. This placement gives man the ability to allow practicality and judgment to work together in order to accomplish the goals to create a more positive future.

Mars is in the sign of Leo during September and most of October. Mars is a fire energy and Leo is a fire sign. This combination allows for an easy flow of the fire energy. There is enthusiasm and passion with plenty of vitality and courage.

October gives us a Mercury retrograde. Mercury is in the sign of Scorpio from October 21 through November 10th. This is a very intense as well as a very perceptive energy.

A lunar eclipse begins October 18th at 25 degrees of Aries. This can make for an impulsive period. Be sure to think before taking action. Use this energy wisely and well. This can provide all the energy needed to accomplish our goals and objectives.

Love and Light,

Eleanor

Blossoming Seeds

By Blanche Duffy, Saugerties, NY

Summer is the perfect time of year for us to evaluate where we have been and where we are going. We made it through the season of introspection or winter, and through the season of rebirth of spring. The seeds for what we hope to reap have been planted. Now we are ready for the blossoming of what we have sown.

How many times have we waited patiently for the winter to end and the time for planting to begin? When winter has finally given up its ghost and spring begins to tread in ever so slowly we take great joy in the thought of planting the first seeds of the season and feeling the joy of rebirth and renewal. Ever so slowly the seeds begin to germinate and the tiny shoots coming out of the ground begin to sprout and grow. What joy to look at our garden and recognize the results of our labors! And as we watch the plants grow and buds appear we feel almost a magical awe that what we have planted has taken on life and is growing.

Our lives replicate the changing of the seasons. When we are born there is little we can do but recognize that in our infancy we must wait to grow and attain some degree of independence. As we learn various lessons and gain some small measure of independence we are allowing the seeds to germinate within us that will someday grow into blossoming plants.

Our adult lives are the summer of our existence—the blossoming of the seeds planted in the spring of our lives. It is the now for which we have waited! Now we have the independence to make our own choices to decide for ourselves what course our lives will take.

Some of our choices will be wondrous successes in which we can show the world what beautiful blossoms we have become.. Some of our choices may be less than spectacular and may leave us wanting to till them under and plant anew. Some of our choices may be total disaster that we rip up and throw into the compost pile.

Still, if we have learned from each experience that tells us all is not lost. As long as we learn from each experience - good, bad, or indifferent - we have made some progress even if the lesson learned is not to repeat that choice.

SPIRIT TREE

By Russ Beck - Cupertino, CA
russb54@sbcglobal.net

At the Patagonia, Arizona Workshop with Sam and Anne Claire 2010.

The warm sun is welcomed by the thirsty earth after yesterday's rain.

Mother Earth showed her thanks with a variety of activities; the birds taking turns at the feeder as the metal wind chimes dance and sing on a gently breeze, a skunk walks into the view searching for food followed by a road runner at a safe distance.

The "Spirit Trees" new leaves have opened with a yellow glow as they are touched by the warm "friendly fire" of the afternoon sun.

A hawk now is hovering as it floats motionless on the breeze, contemplating the future, then returning to the East.

The crown of yellow leaves glows brightly and then expands and surrounds the tree showing me its auric soul body. I look at lightning and the tree symbols on my Magus ring and know the bond between myself and the tree. The spiritual energy held at our spinal root as it advances on our path as it rises up to our crown (like kundaini) then covering our being, man and tree.

What we have wanted and needed is manifested.

The initiation of Fire and Water is complete in Nature for we are Nature.

Q. You said that the decision is ours when we die. Is that decision made before we enter this life? Is there a time for all of us?

There is a time for everyone, but please don't get the idea that if you have a karmic debt and you pay it off then you go. If that were the case, many three-year-olds and four-year-olds would be long gone. The object is, you have an expectancy of life. You can cause it to occur beforehand by abuse of the self, or abuse of the body. There are accidents in which you make your transition before the plotted time, but you are aware of that plotted time, and when it is that kind of timing, you know it, you know it subliminally, and if you permit it to rise, you know it consciously. Yes, it is usually predetermined.

It is not predetermined that you say on Tuesday at two o'clock, Many people who make the decision to stay will go on to do other things in life, because instinctively, in that awakened state, they had the sense to know it was time to go back, not to continue on.

Q. Julian, when you said in the transition, you see your life go past you, and there have been cases when people have said where they've gotten really scared and said I saw my whole life flash in front of me, or just before an accident, or afterwards.

Does this mean that the person who has seen his life flash in front of him, does that mean that that person went to the other side and then chose to come back, or died and came back, or what happened?

What happened is, the anxiety.... Let us say your car is in a skid. In that split second moment, you assume you're going to die, and you prepare in that split second to detach, which sets forth the whole life going through in front of you. Then the car comes to rest in a snow bank, and you're still alive, and so you realize it wasn't time. You see? But in that split second, because you have released in the body all the elements needed to have that viewing, out of the fear, the panic, of the moment, you go through the first stage, even though you don't complete the stage.

Q. Using that same example, Julian, if you make a call out for help, doesn't that emphasize the help that you're going to get back. I made a very strong plea and it saved me.

Absolutely.

Q: I didn't want to go, and I really felt the presence of some help there.

Whenever you send out that signal, that help is there and that can help you to know that it is not yet time to make that decision.

Q: Is it your guardian angel plus guides and other angels?

It is all those who have worked with you, who are there to give you sustenance at that time.

Q: What about disembodied spirits? I understand that there are some souls who stay in the Earth plane and latch on to you.

Those who have no belief in an after world of any kind, will not latch on, but they will be in the astral plane, and they will try very hard to still live in the physical world, so they will try to talk through someone, or they will try to be in the presence of the house they used to live in, because they haven't accepted that they don't belong there any more, and because they have no idea where they do belong, they have no place to go, so it's like hanging out on the corner, sort of thing. They stay where they think that's their only life.

Q. (This had to do with someone having demons driven out)

Let me say something. Nine-tenths of possession is obsession, people obsessed with the idea that they're being possessed, and manifesting it in themselves. Those one or two legitimate cases that occur in that eight versus ten, so to speak, are very often confused spirits trying to live through another person, trying to again be able to do the physical things they wanted to do, and so a person who never drank might decide they want a drink, you see, that sort of thing. Then they have to be helped to let that spirit know where it's supposed to be and let the spirit who has been invaded know that it must take control of it. But every case you hear of so-called possession is not possession, it is the obsession. It is much easier for a parent to say my child does these horrible things because he's possessed, than to say, this child needs a good discipline. It is much easier for someone who doesn't want to discipline themselves not to do things to say, something makes me do it, the devil made me do it. That's what they say. So they use this possession as an excuse. In either case, there's a great chaos creat-

“You will take upon yourself the decision making for the future of your world. . “

ed, and in the obsession case, it is the person who must be worked with first to be willing to let go.

Q. How about suicides, Julian? We've heard that karmically this is not a wise choice.

Suicide is not a wise choice in this sense, that if you are in a suicidal act, you are moving yourself away from that which you're facing for soul growth. Maybe your own decisions along the way have gotten you into a space where you don't know how to cope any more and you decide it's time to end it. But a suicide is never lost. They are worked with in my side, and as we speak of the various jobs on my side a little later, you will see that one of them is to work with suicides to bring that spirit to its potential again, so that it can know that it must go back another time and redirect those energies in a positive way, but they are not lost, they are worked with constantly.

Q. I had just heard that sometimes it might take several lifetimes then to go back because it wasn't met the first time and therefore, it became increasingly difficult.

If you knew all the things you don't meet in one lifetime, you'd give up. Everyone makes a choice to come back to answer some need or some growth, but it's all.... You know, you have a tendency to look on it in your world as labor, but in reality it's growth. You're gaining from it, so it isn't looked on quite the same from my side. My side sees that it's kind of a good thing.

A SHORT TRIBUTE TO JULIAN
by Audrey Jonsson - Florida & Sweden

As I felt his touch.

As I have followed his path
And taken his lead....
I come to realize that I have Everything that I need.

Blossoming Seeds of Self

By Renee Salvatori - Wheeling, West Virginia

A protected seed finally making its first appearance, like a curtain opened to its awaiting audience.

This flourishing seed showing its riches in the form of a little green sprout or bud.

Great anticipation and excitement in this stage of development or peek-period.

Like a bird egg that exhibits cracks on its shell, followed by a beak and feathers.

Like the surprising Jack-in-the-box popping out after many turns of the crank.

Or the heated corn kernels bursting forth into something fluffy and edible.

How about the tightly coiled spring being released of its tension to freedom.

And the bulging womb that finally unveils its awaited secret with a glorious birth.

The nourished human soul advances too and slowly blooms into one of its own firsts.

All the above mentioned could take days, weeks, months or years.

We don't sit idly by waiting. It would be like watching the proverbial pot boil.

We don't have sped up film footage of our sprouting soul like a flower blooming or the chick hatching.

But, we see it in real time. We feel its changes overtake us in our anticipated patience.

We come into a new self many times. We flower into who we are and ripen daily.

We experience our own budding, freedom, release, anticipation, excitement, and a birth of sorts.

Transformational experiences are our own personal blossoming seeds of self.

WELCOME TO THE JULIAN TEACHING ADVISORY BOARD

From Saul Srour

Saul has been an active member of the Julian Community since 1976. He attended the second public lecture in NYC (1976) and he made learning and spreading the teachings of Reverend June K. Burke and the Seraphy Julian his life's work. Julian confirmed that in this lifetime, as in many others, Saul was asked to work with June and Julian to spread Universal Spiritual Teachings. He accepted this responsibility with respect and honor. He has intimately come to know their vast teachings, and as such, Julian qualified Saul as a teacher of the Julian disciplines. In addition, Saul was privately tutored by June and Julian for many years in preparation for his role as the guardian of their teaching material after June's transformation.

Saul was blessed to become very close to June Burke and her husband Bill. They often spent weekends, holidays and vacations together. He came to know June and Bill, and subsequently, Julian as beloved teachers and friends. This friendship spanned over 30 years of laughter and love. Over the many years of their association, Saul was instrumental in assisting June and Julian in many facets of their teachings including; publishing and distributing their books and booklets, facilitating most of the public lectures, coordinating taping and distributing materials from public lectures and TE, Magus and Development classes.

After June's transition, Saul accepted June and Julian's request that he assume the responsibility as the guardian of all the June and Julian material. This massive undertaking includes organizing, digitalizing & archiving the teachings. In addition, he works to spread the teachings and has established the website www.julianteachings.com. Saul also maintains and facilitates the daily email Healing List, www.healings7@gmail.com and maintains the Ring Of Light (julianteachings.com/resources/ring-of-light-newsletters/) newsletter list which further illustrates his commitment to being of service to our community and healing throughout the planet.

From Linda Scheer

I have a Bachelors in Business Administration; M.S. in Vocational Rehabilitation. I keep my California Teaching Credential current. I taught in the San Mateo County Office of Education Special Education Division as a Vocational Specialist for 17 years. In that career I developed a vocational training and placement program for students with severe disabilities. I began practicing Tai Chi in 1988 and started teaching the art in 1995.

I met Larry Scheer and other members of Sam Holland's meditation group at Asilomar, California in February of 1982. I began attending Sam's Monday night meditation group shortly after the meeting at Asilomar. I became acquainted with June and Julian at the first Julian workshop in California. Larry and Archie Mulvena arranged for June to come to California in October 1982. I studied the Transition Energy with Julian, Development with Julian, and Practical Magus with June and Julian. Larry and I were authorized by June and Julian to begin teaching Development classes in 1994 and Practical Magus in 1996. Over the years, Larry and I hosted June in our home when she came to California to do workshops. I currently teach Tai Chi classes full time throughout the Peninsula and South San Francisco Bay area in California. I have been on the Advisory Board since its inception, and I continue to assist Camille and Larry.

From Anne Claire Venemans

I have always had a mystical approach toward nature and life in general. I have used this perspective in my Mystical Jewelry since 1984. I met Sam Holland in 1994 and it didn't take long for me to get introduced to and extremely interested in June and Julian's precious teachings. I am a qualified teacher of TE and to teach Mystical Magus reviews. I also teach classes and workshops that work with the universal energies in a very practical way, making each workshop an exploration of self and your personal spiritual path. As you learn more about yourself, you will find it easier to gain greater balance in your life.

I have had the opportunity to be taught by Julian on the meaning of shapes and symbols, both in the energy seals Julian gave, as well as in divination, which led me to develop the 'Symbol Discs, an Ancient Shamanic Way to Gain Insight'.

I use all I have learned from June and Julian in the unique pieces of Mystical Jewelry I create. I draw personal Empowerment Mandalas. I co-authored "Sacred Spaces and their Universal Connection", and twice a week I post in my blog 'Thinking out Loud'.

I am interested in June and Julian's precious teachings. I am a qualified teacher of TE and to teach Mystical Magus reviews. I also teach classes and workshops that work with the universal energies in a very practical way, making each workshop an exploration of self and your personal spiritual path. As you learn more about yourself, you will find it easier to gain greater balance in your life.

From Nick Theo

My introduction to the Julian teachings occurred as an 18-year-old college student living in Virginia Beach. Since then, I studied all facets of the Julian teachings, and attended lectures and workshops Julian taught in New York, California, and other areas. In 1983, I joined the New York Development group of which I was member until June's passing. In 1987, and for a number of years afterwards, June instructed me further on those Saturday evenings following a Development class. This period included working with Miriam Chandler on transcribing classes and putting together course material from the Julian books and lectures. In 1992, I taught the first Self-Discovery course in Virginia. One year later, I began teaching the Development class in Virginia that later bonded as the Atlantic Circle in 2003. In 1999, I met Frank Wharton, who since 1975, worked with Julian on soul astrology. Under Julian's guidance, Frank taught Camille, Lynn Chandler, and me the soul astrology materials. Since Frank's passing in late 2002, I continue the administration and ongoing research of the soul astrology material.

The lifelong friendships formed with June, Bill, Julian, and the rest of our community is of great value to me. We truly were blessed by what we witnessed. Today, I am a teacher of the Development and Self-Awareness classes as well as soul astrology.

I was raised in a household that had an association to the Cayce materials that most likely sustained my "awareness" of intuitive and elemental energies. There is a lifelong relationship with the A.R.E./Edgar Cayce Foundation and Atlantic University and its people. From this association, since my youth, I have the rare opportunity to meet with and know many of the authors, teachers, and thinkers of New Thought. At age 15, I began my study in astrology. In addition, my interests lie in Western mysticism, its associated history, and transpersonal psychology.

Professionally, my background is in operations and strategic management, which since 1999 is in the higher education industry. My undergraduate degree is in management and leadership with a focus on non-profit management. Currently, I am pursuing graduate work on adult education and digital learning.

From Denny Brown

I'm a relative newcomer to the Julian crowd and the most recent addition to the Advisory Board. Larry Scheer introduced me to June and Julian in the mid-90's. Saul invited me to join the Advisory Board in 2009.

I was raised Catholic, attending a Catholic grade school in St. Paul, Minnesota. I graduated from Cretin High School, a boys, Catholic, military high school in 1964. I turned down an appointment to the Air Force Academy to enter a Catholic seminary. That lasted all of 6 months. I left the seminary, and effectively shed my Catholic indoctrination. I went on a "God fast" for a few years. The late 60's and early 70's were good for that kind of thing.

While at Stanford for grad school in Computer Science, I took a seminar called "Human Potential" led by Willis Harmon, who later founded the Institute of Noetic Sciences. That class re-ignited my interest in metaphysics and spirituality. For many years, I explored those topics on my own. I read things like the biographies of Edgar Cayce and books based on his readings. I taught myself self-hypnosis. I explored people like Dick Sutphen, a clinical hypnotherapist, who produced books and training materials on past life therapy and self-hypnosis.

From 1976-1981, I was Associate Chairman of the Computer Science Department at Stanford. I managed most of the teaching functions of the department, as well as many of the faculty committees. I developed and taught many of the undergraduate programming courses.

In 1982, I left academia to take a job with a startup company whose mission was to commercialize Expert Systems, a type of Artificial Intelligence software. I learned about the software business at Teknowledge and Coherent Thought. In 1990, I co-founded Expert Support with Jan Clayton and my wife, Jake Brown, Larry Scheer and I worked together at Expert Support for a few years before we discovered our mutual interest in metaphysics. It took a while before Larry introduced me to June and Julian at one of the west coast workshops in the mid-90s. In January 2006, Larry started teaching a Self Awareness class based on the original Development series. In late 2010, we completed that series and I am now certified by Larry to teach the Self-Awareness (aka Development) series of classes. I have not made the commitment to teach that class ... yet.

Since late 2010, I have continued taking the rest of the Development series with Larry, starting with lesson 200.

I was invited to speak at the 12th Gathering in 2009 in Monterey. I led a session on "Inspiring Business: a Confluence of Spirit & Business". Later that year, Saul invited me to join the Advisory board.

The energy I bring to the Advisory Board is expansive. I would like to see the Julian Community grow to be dramatically bigger (in terms of number of individuals exposed to the Julian Teachings), younger (in terms of the average age of community members), and more engaged (in terms of the way the community interacts with one another). I would like to see the Julian Teachings have greater impact on more people over the next 5 to 20 years.

Barry Burken: The Seven Hermetic Laws

Barry has been fortunate to have experienced several life changing experiences that introduced him to a path of Spirit and Self Discovery. One of the most significant of these experiences was meeting June Burke and Julian in 1980. Barry says that the classes and training he received redefined his life and infused it with an underlying sense of joy and purpose.

Adele Lederman M.S., RN, R.HYP: Healer

Adele has been a student and teacher of the Julian Healing Techniques since 1971. She has facilitated workshops in Healing Techniques, co-authored a Handbook of Julian Healing Techniques, taught Spiritual Awareness as well as seeing those people seeking improvement in their mental, physical and spiritual lives.

John Svirsky: Meditation

John has been a student of June/Julian since 1980 using his psychic and channelling gifts as a reader and teacher in helping himself and others to live a life that is Happy, Joyous and Free. Living from a God Conscious plane of understanding. His readings help each soul connect to their soul purpose, why they have chosen to incarnate this life time and help connect to their spirit guides and Angels. John helps souls cross to other dimensions of light and where appropriate helps them release from the Maya of this plane.

Jeanne Livingston: Altar Setup

Jeanne Livingston, (John Svirsky's partner), gratefully received many insightful and healing readings with Julian from 1985 on. Later she joined June's development class in La Grangeville, N.Y. Having been a successful Interior Designer for 36 years in New York she spoke at a gathering on her method of "Decorating with Astrology". June endorsed her book "Brother Lion, words of inspiration from a spirit guide" which was published in 1987.

My interest In herbs started in the early 1980's. I learned what I could on my own, coupled with my nutrition classes in college. Then I began taking classes in California and Arizona with nutritionist and herbalists to add to my foundation of the herbal knowledge. I have studied and expanded my knowledge ever since. I met June in the late 80's and it is a day I will never forget. I walked into her house for a reading and I looked at her and we just hugged. She said "welcome home, it is good to see you again". In the reading she gave me she invited my into her class. A day that changed my life.
