

The SEVEN KEY UNIVERSAL RUNES

Introduction

The Universal Runes are a gift from the universe, which you can relate to. They describe universal energies, whose expressions pre-date the I-Ching and have evolved over time. Yet they also describe what each rune means to the individual. The combination of both universal and individual meanings provides insight into the relationship of each of us to the universe, and how to better comprehend ourselves. These magnificent energies, which have operated throughout time, also work within each of us.

We can, through the “magic” of selecting a Universal Rune for guidance, come into a deeper understanding of our own energies, and how we connect with the energies of the cosmos. The Universal Runes reveal universal energies to us in which we can recognize ourselves, and they are surprisingly practical.

These Runes were first presented to mankind by the Seraph Julian, in a book written in 1984, and then conveyed in a workshop in California in 1985. In this workshop, Julian explained that the Universal Runes were being presented at the inflection point in time, in which the energies of the new Age of Aquarius fully took over from the residual Piscean Age energies. This re-presentation of the appropriately evolved Universal Runes, at the changing of an Age, has apparently been done since humanity could first receive them. Julian presented them in 1985 as impersonal, universal guides to help understand impersonal issues outside the realm of daily life questions. For more personal questions, Julian referred us back to the traditional Runes, as presented in Ralph Blum’s superb “The Book of Runes,” which Julian also did workshops on. We have found that the individual meanings of the Universal Rune weave a useful pattern of guidance when used in combination with the traditional Runes.

THE KEY RUNES

The seven Key Runes are given in the order in which they represent evolution and the process of manifestation in action. They are:

DAHZ	Movement of transformation
NUUH	Breaking of the untouchability
DAAL	Creative release
BEL	Conception and ideas
HOAM	Balance maintained
LHLA	Completion
AUM	The yet to be

DAHZ is the movement of transformation. It creates the altered energies that permit NUUH to work. NUUH is the breaking of stagnant energy that is pure potential, which enables movement toward new beginnings. The new beginnings come through creative release, which is DAAL. The creative release gives birth to BEL, which is concept and idea. When concept and idea are maintained through balance, HOAM, movement is toward completion, or manifestation, which is LHLA. The fulfillment of that manifestation, or completion, lets man realize and trust the unknown future, the AUM, the yet to be. This, in turn, moves toward transformation movement in the void, which creates the altered energy that permits the breaking enabling creative release, concept, and idea, balance maintenance, and once again, completion. Thus, the evolutionary process is shown in microscopic form.

It must be understood that wherever the Key Runes fall, there is an additional energy, an additional thrust, vibration, and rhythm brought to the question at hand. Wherever a Key Rune falls, there falls the power of evolution and change. They are very powerful. They are energies that can help man make the necessary steps to his own goals and to his universe's evolution. They are powerful energy forces that initiate in man the cycle of change. From the creative release is born the idea which, through balance and maintained energy, is brought to completion. The fulfillment of completion lets man realize and trust the unknown future, the "yet to be." He trusts that, again, the creative force will release new and wonderful things that are within his power to achieve through his own effort.

DAHZ (Ahz): The Magician, Transformation

Glyph: The very glyph of this rune is movement in form. The form is invisible as the void is invisible. The shape and form of this rune suggest spermatozoon, but, in reality, it is the movement within the force itself, so it is the first movement toward being other than non-being.

Universally: This is the rune of the power of changing elements. It represents, universally, the transformation powers. DAHZ is the force behind altered energies that bring forth, through a series of transformations, materialization.

Individually: Where DAHZ appears, the ability to use the inner energies, which are not quite visible, to achieve outer realization and manifestation occurs.

Reversed: There is no reverse position for this rune. Wherever it is shown, something old is giving way toward something new.

NUUH (Uh): Break, Sever, Cut

Glyph: This blade-like glyph shows a sharpness and an ability to cut, to sever, and to break.

Universally: The energy behind NUUH is knife-like. It affords an opportunity to break energy that binds. It is always an initial step to a new beginning and change.

Individually: It is a chance to break old habits and redirect the life. It must be understood that it is a surgery performed in energy. It is the ability to be released from that which has held you back. This rune can be the rebirth, or the instigation, of the reality of you.

Reversed: There is no reverse position for this rune.

DAAL (Aal): Creative Release

Glyph: The symbol itself is that of a starburst. It is a letting out of energy. From one vortex many points proceeding outward. It is a rune of creative release.

Universally: This rune represents the universal movement of creative thought and action through time. The universal forces have begun to create from divine understanding, and it will manifest at its perfect point in time.

Individually: The creative energies are activated, or elevated, permitting a new expression of the self. The Key Rune, DAAL, is a positive expression wherever it appears. It moves to release new energies and new concepts.

BEL (EI): Conception, Ideas, Beginnings

Glyph: Represents “As above, so below.” The balance that creates a smooth flow within the universe, permitting it to be directed to the material plane.

Universally: The Universal Rune BEL shows the inner movements of all things. It represents the energy merger that permits new beginnings and new concepts to be born. The ether and space merge with the elements to create all things.

Individually: It represents beginnings of a physical nature. It can denote a physical birth or the birth of a new idea in life.

Reversed: There is no reversal for this rune, as it is a Key Rune to change and always represents fresh starts and merger.

HOAM (Hoa): Balanced Maintained

Glyph: The two horizontal, parallel lines of this symbol represent balance maintained.

Universally: HOAM is the universal energies in perfect balance. It is a Key Rune to the future. All the universe’s energies are working together. The elements and the ether are merged in a harmonic to create peace.

Individually: It creates the energy of realized peace, inner awareness and release of man’s fears. Peaceful attitudes become easier. Where it falls, peace begins through balance.

Reversed: There is no reverse position for this rune.

LHLA (Lha): Completion, Finished works

Glyph: This glyph has a rhythm. It is also a stairway. Therefore, it is stepping forth, growing, moving upward in your own rhythm and pattern.

Universally: This is an energy of sustaining force. It maintains rhythms in time and space which assist in the proper culmination of any change within the universal pattern.

Individually: Where LHLA falls, it is the energy of the inner clock for that person. It creates urges for change and the initiation of change at the time that is right for that person's rhythm and growth patterns.

Reversed: There is no reversal of this rune. It always deals with rhythm, time, and change.

AUM (OhUm): The Yet to Be

The Universal Rune AUM represents the yet to be. This circle represents the energies yet unfolding, the movement in the void. This Key Rune indicates changes that are in movement only in the ether and not yet to be seen. Divine power rules and time will reveal its plan.

There is no reversed position of this rune.

Julian Affirmation

God is the source of all supply. He answers my every need.

I become a flow of energy in a moving force.

I know no beginning and no end.

I am an instrument of peace and wholeness.

It flows from me, from my voice, and from my eyes.

It flows through me, from my heart and from my touch.

It flows. A never-ending source of peace.

For that is who I am. So be it.
